

Seema Kara

I received my B.S. in Biomedical Engineering in Tissue Engineering and Biomaterials from Drexel. I am currently working with Anat Katsir on a vascular graft project and a spinal cord injury project. We are creating a small diameter vascular graft from electrospun fibers. The spinal cord projects focuses on the channeling of neurons in a freeze-dried scaffold.